AMANDA FLORES

JUNIOR FULL-STACK WEB DEVELOPER | MASTER'S DEGREE IN PROFESSIONAL WEB

ABOUT ME

I recently completed my Master's Degree in Web Development and Applications online at Universidad Europea Madrid. During the program, My academic journey culminated in a Master's thesis, where I achieved a perfect 10/10, demonstrating my ability to deliver innovative and high-quality results.

In addition to my technical expertise, my diploma in graphic design from Escola Espai Barcelona has honed my creative abilities, especially in tools like Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, and InDesign. This combination allows me to merge functionality with aesthetic appeal in my work.

While I may not yet have direct industry experience, my proven ability to learn and apply a wide range of technologies, coupled with my academic achievements, positions me as a strong asset to any team.

Why hire me? My extensive technical knowledge, demonstrated commitment to excellence, and unique combination of creativity and development expertise make me a candidate capable of delivering fresh perspectives and tangible value to your team.
